

Direct Fab® is treated for direct dye sublimation printing by dipping. Unlike traditional dye sublimation printing, you can print an image onto the fabric directly without transfer paper. DBanner provides strong durability, highly ink absorption and anti-shrinkage effect to prevent the material shrinkage on heating process. With the softness and strong durability, it is suitable for all kinds of indoor or outdoor signages. In comparison with traditional dye sublimation printing, you will be able to save much more cost and working time as well as avoid the various problems, such as skewing, wrinkling and so on.
